

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Trio Caliente

ANNOUNCES CD RELEASE CONCERT AT BLACKROCK CENTER FOR THE ARTS
NOVEMBER 20, 2010, 8-10PM | WWW.BLACKROCKCENTER.ORG

Trio Caliente's 2007 debut album "BAILA ME" hit the Latin Billboard Charts and won major airplay on Adult Contemporary and Latin radio stations nationwide; now the group is thrilled to announce the November 2010 release of "OYE CHICA". Hot original Latin dance hits fuse sensual melodies with intoxicating rhythms in a landscape inspired by Celia Cruz, Baden Powell, Gipsy Kings, Tania Maria, and Steve Stevens (Billy Idol). "OYE CHICA" features performances by award-winning salsa "Soneo" vocalist/ percussionist, Alfredo Mojica and great Jazz and Latin "All-Stars": on percussion, Chuck Redd (Charlie Byrd); acoustic bass, Tommy Cecil; tenor sax, Chris Vadala (Chuck Mangione). Brazilian batucada/samba comes alive with the magic of electric bassist Leonardo Lucini and percussionist, Bruno Lucini (Origem). Latin Grammy-winning Raul Jaurena ("I Love Tango") adds the plaintive beauty of bandoneon for a taste of Argentina on "Suenos!" Trio Caliente is comprised of vocalist, DEBORAH BENNER and guitarists, MIGUEL BARD and AMILCAR CRUZ, international performer/composers who reside in the Washington, D.C. area.

In celebration of the album's release, Trio Caliente will play a concert at BlackRock Center for the Arts on Saturday, November 20, 2010, 8-10 pm. The performance will feature guest artists, flamenco and salsa dancers, including world class tango dancers, Arturo y Mari Grandon.

FOR TICKET INFO, visit www.blackrockcenter.org or call (240) 912-1058. To obtain press access, please contact Blackrock or Trio Caliente Manager: JULIE MODARESSI at (301) 254-7477.

Since 2003, Trio Caliente's inimitable blend of Flamenco, Pop, and Brazilian Jazz has been enjoyed by political luminaries stateside and abroad; notable Fortune 500 companies; and venerated international organizations, festivals, and concert venues around the world.

Whether providing elegant accompaniment to a formal dinner or sultry, throbbing rhythms that keep the dance floor packed all night long, Washington, DC-based Trio Caliente effortlessly creates the ideal atmosphere for any type of event. With vocals in Spanish, Portuguese, Catalan, and English set to a wide array of Latin grooves, Trio Caliente's sound is reminiscent of The Gipsy Kings, Buena Vista Social Club, Strunz & Farah, and Jobim—but with a flavor all their own.

Trio Caliente's musicians have performed from coast to coast throughout the U.S. and in Spain, South America, Central America and the Middle East. From diplomatic tours with the U.S. Department of State to Inaugural balls, swearing-in ceremonies, and private events, Trio Caliente has collectively performed for such prominent figures as President Bill Clinton, Senators John Kerry and Bob Dole, Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor, Secretaries of State Henry Kissinger and Condoleezza Rice, and Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke.

Sharing the stage throughout the years with Jazz legends like Charlie Byrd, Keter Betts, and McCoy Tyner to Salsa superstars Jerry Rivera and Luis Enrique, members of Trio Caliente have also performed and recorded with Grammy-nominated jazz flautist, Nestor Torres, Latin Grammy-winner, Raul Jaurena, Shahin and Sepehr (Virgin/Higher Octave), and David

Hidalgo of "Los Lobos."

Corporate clients include: Microsoft Latin America, Target, The National Press Club, Federal Reserve Bank, League of Latin American Citizens (LULAC), The World Bank, Hispanic American Organization (HAO), Hotel Monaco, Clark Construction, NALEO Education Fund, The W Hotels, Capital One Bank, and many more.

You've likely seen Trio Caliente appearing locally at Blues Alley, The Kennedy Center, Wolf Trap, The Harman Center, Strathmore, The Library of Congress, Mellon Auditorium, The D.A.R., and many other prestigious area venues.

Visit www.triocaliente.com for a complete list of area shows and times. For bookings contact: Julie Modaresi at (301) 254-7477 or red@triocaliente.com.